

A DAY IN RALEIGH.

Minor Happenings Packed in Paragraphs for the Business People.

Mr. Martin Newman, chief of the fire department of Wilmington, is in the city.

Mr. T. B. Bridgers, postmaster of Lemay, was in attendance on the United States Court yesterday.

Rev. Dr. L. L. Nash will go to Kinston on Monday to assist Rev. F. M. Shambarger in a protracted meeting.

Major D. L. Barber, chief of police of Clayton, was in the city yesterday, attending the United States Court.

Sheriff Frank H. Stedman, of New Hanover county, is here. He was formerly connected with the Star—is now a sheriff. He is in the line of promotion.

The members of the Grocers' Protective Association are requested to meet in their rooms in the Holliman building on June 5th, at 8:30 o'clock sharp. Let every member be present if possible.

A horse belonging to Mr. M. T. Norris took a notion that the street belonged to him and proceeded to take possession, but somebody took possession of him and he is now safe without doing any damage.

There was a very pleasant picnic party at Tucker's Mills yesterday. They got a little wet but of course that made them all the merrier. Misses Sallie Clark and Alma Wynne acted as chaperones.

The amended rates of freight and passenger traffic will be issued by the Commissioners day after tomorrow. They will be bound in a pamphlet containing the Commission Act, its rules, regulations, etc.

Mr. H. T. Hicks, a former Raleigh boy, who has been in Asheville for some time, has accepted a position in the drug store of James McKinnon & Co. The CHRONICLE is glad to welcome him back to Raleigh.

The new bank here, the Farmers' and Merchants', will be opened August 1, with $100,000 capital. It will very probably be located down town and will do much business with the cotton and tobacco men. The capital is soon to be increased. The stockholders are men of means.

The "Hard Hitters" and "Little Hackers" will play a game of baseball at the Athletic Park this afternoon at 4:30 for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. The admission will be for all under fifteen, 10 cents; all over will be charged 15 cents. Every one should go, as the proceeds go to a very worthy and needed cause.

GRADED SCHOOL TEACHERS

Prof. Moses Re-Elected Superintendent of the City Schools.

At a meeting of the Raleigh township committee held last evening, Prof. E. P. Moses was elected Superintendent of Graded Schools. The new school year commences September 18th, '91.

Mr. Frank M. Harper was re-elected Principal of the Centennial School, and Miss E. A. Pool was re-elected Principal of the Murphy School. The following teachers were also elected for the white Graded Schools:

Misses Mary V. Marsh, Sarah A. Tillinghast, Carrie L. Strong, Ada V. Womble, Myrtle Branson, Norah M. King, Mabel Hale, Grace H. Bates, Lula Riddle, Lizzie Bellamy, Minnie Redford, Edith Royster and Mrs. James Williamson and Mrs. S. S. Williams.

Rates to Washington, D. C.

J. T. Patrick, Esq., has received a dispatch from R. D. Carpenter, Railroad Commissioner, Richmond, Va., giving the following party rates for the delegation to Washington, D. C. Ten to fourteen persons inclusive on one ticket, $8.40 each. Fifteen to twenty-five persons inclusive $7.60 each. Twenty-six persons and over $6.80 each. These are way rates and apply in either direction.

THE PEOPLE.

Tar Heel Folks Hustling to and fro on Business and Pleasure.

Esmeralda to-night at Metropolitan Hall.

W. D. Pruden, Esq., of Edenton, is in Raleigh.

Mr. L. N. Watson, of Ridgeway was in the city yesterday.

Miss Agnes Stallings, passed through Raleigh yesterday on her way home.

Rev. Mr. Gwaltney, of Wake Forest came to Raleigh on a flying visit yesterday.

A. H. McNeill, ex-Register of Deeds of Moore county, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Riddle has returned from Durham where she has been visiting Mrs. Bernard several days.

At the Governor's Guard Prize Drill last night Mr. Joe Crowder won, as usual. He is a soldier boy.

The funeral of Mrs. Claude Perkinson, which was announced for yesterday, has been postponed until ten o'clock this morning from the Presbyterian church.

Col. and Mrs. W. J. Hicks, and their two charming daughters, Misses Lizzie and Bertha, returned from the Salem Female College commencement where Miss Bertha graduated.

Mr. B. H. Woodell returned from Winston-Salem yesterday, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mattie, who graduated with distinction at the recent commencement of Salem Female College.

The Seaboard Air-Line will sell reduced rate tickets to Wake Forest College Commencement, to be on sale June 6th to 10th, good returning until the 13th inclusive. Round trip from Raleigh will be 85c.

The CHRONICLE was in error the other day in saying that the late James H. Harris, col., was born a slave. He was not, but was born a free man and was bound out to a gentleman in Louisiana.

Miss Fannie Williamson, the accomplished and deservedly popular President of the Peace Institute Class of '91, will remain in Raleigh for several days to the delight of her friends and is visiting the Misses Carroll.

The CHRONICLE was agreeably surprised on yesterday to see Senator John D. Bellamy, of New Hanover, in our city. He has a great many friends in Raleigh and we want him to know it. He was universally popular in the last General Assembly, and won the hearts of all our people.

The Neck-Tie Party last evening was a great success and all the ladies were out to help along the good cause. The CHRONICLE editorial staff return its sincerest thanks to them for their kind remembrance of our appetites, and hope every one enjoyed their delicacies.

A TENNIS TOURNAMENT.

This Will be an Attraction at Wake Forest Next Week.

One of the attractions at Wake Forest commencement next week will be a tennis tournament between the champion players of the college, the winner to be presented with a silver cup as the prize of the contest. The games will be played on Monday and Tuesday, June 8th and 9th. The regular tennis rules of the American Association of Tennis Clubs will be adhered to. The contest is looked forward to with interest, and lovers of the sport should avail themselves of this opportunity.

A game of baseball is being arranged between two of the college teams and may come off on Thursday afternoon.

The alumni banquet will be served Thursday evening. An attractive programme has been arranged and all the alumni of the land are invited to be present. The local alumni at Wake Forest and the class of '91 will do the honors of the occasion.

Let everybody go out and have a gay time; it's only 16 miles away and the trains run at convenient hours.

ESMERALDA TO-NIGHT.

Everybody Should see this Popular Play by Home Talent.

Esmeralda is booked for to-night at Metropolitan Hall and the two facts, that it is to be played by home talent and is for the benefit of St. John's Hospital, should convince every one that they should be there.

The following is the cast of characters:

Old Man Rogers—A North Carolina Farmer, Walter H. Grimes.
Lydia Ann Rogers—His Wife, Mrs. T. C. Harris.

Esmeralda—His Daughter, Miss Mary C. Miller.

Dave Hardy—A Young North Carolinian, Jim Anderson.

Estabrook—A Man of Leisure, Henry W. Miller.

Jack Desmond—An American Artist in Paris, Frank Harper.

Nora and Kate Desmond—His Sisters, Miss Maude Marshall and Miss Altie Gales.

Marquis de Montessin—A French Adventurer, Geo. Hardin.

George Drew—An American Speculator, Frank Harper.

Synopsis.

Act I. Rogers' home in North Carolina—Ore found on the farm—Drew tries to buy it for nothing—Is kept from it by Dave—Finally buys it—Parting of the lovers by Mrs. Rogers.

Act II. A Studio of Jack Desmond's in Paris—Estabrook discovers the ore was on Dave's farm instead of the Rogers'—Dave discovered in Paris, starving.

Act III. A room in Rogers' house during a ball—Estabrook very much in love with Nora—Old man pleads with the Marquis to give up Esmeralda—Esmeralda announces the Marquis.

Act IV. Studio of Desmond—Estabrook wins Nora—Esmeralda discovers Dave is in Paris—The lovers united.

WARREN ELECTION CASE.

It Comes up Before the U. S. Court and the Defendants File a Demurrer.

But little business was transacted yesterday by the U. S. District Court in session here.

The Warren county election case came up for hearing and the counsel for the County Board of Canvassers of Warren county, filed a demurrer.

This was argued by F. H. Busbee and W. H. Day for the defendants and by Judge D. L. Russell for the prosecution.

Judge Seymour announced that he reserved his decision, and on coming into court after the dinner recess he was still in doubt and the case went over until today.

The only case disposed of was that of the U. S. vs. W. A. Messer, alias Bud Messer, of Johnston county, for illicit distilling. He was found guilty and imprisoned for thirty days with a fine of $100.

Messrs W. H. Jones, H. Crudup, W. Osborne and B. Mitchell, of Wake Forest College, were here yesterday.

A Row That Ended in Death.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 4.—A special to the State from Kershaw, S. C., says: W. M. West and his cousin, H. T. West started from this place for their home in Timrod yesterday and while on the way began quarreling. W. S. Tolbert and a negro who came along in a wagon interfered.

Tolbert struck H. T. West with his fist and then took out his pistol and beat West in the face and on the head with the butt of his firearm, cutting eight gashes, and just as West was falling, shot him in the head, below the left ear. West died almost immediately. Tolbert is still at large.

Watermelons.

It is said that watermelons will be seen to-morrow back of the market. Mr. Rufus Uzzle has ordered a wagon-load.

During the storm yesterday several bricks fell from the top of the old stand of D. S. Waitt.

THE GREAT HORSE SHOW.

The Chronicle Gives a Full Statement of What it Will Be.

North Carolina's Great Horse Show to be held in this city on July 4th promises to be one of the greatest shows on record in the State.

It is not to be a show merely for the racing, and it is not going to be a place for gambling, but it is to be an exhibition of the fine blooded stock of the State for the sole benefit of showing how beautiful are her horses, and what she has in that line. The main object is a good one: viz, to promote the raising of fine stock in the State.

There will be $500 given away in premiums, and arranged so everybody can get some. The show is open to the entire State, and entries are being made from every section.

The following are the premiums:

First Race.—One-half mile dash, trotting in harness, for yearlings. Premium, $35. First horse, $20; second horse, $10; third horse, $5. No entrance charged in this race.

Second Race.—One-half mile heats, trotting in harness. Best 2 in 3, for two-year olds. Premium, $50. $25 first; $12.50 second; $7.50 third; $5 fourth.

Third Race.—One-mile heats, trotting in harness. Best 2 in 3, for three-year-olds. Premium $70. $35 to first; $15 to second; $9 to third; $6 to fourth.

Fourth Race.—Three-minute Class. Trotting, mile heats. Best 3 in 5, in harness. Premium $70. $35 to first; $17 to second; $11 to third; $7 to fourth.

Fifth Race.—Mile heats, trotting. Best 3 in 5, in harness. Premium $100. $50 to first; $25 to second; $15 to third; $10 to fourth.

Sixth Race.—Running.—One-mile dash. Premium $40; $25 to first; $15 to second.

Seventh Race.—Running.—One-mile-and-a-half dash. Premium, $60; $40 to first, $20 to second.

Let every fine blooded horse in North Carolina be on exhibition, and let us all see that our State can raise a great deal better animals than transparent mules and razor back hogs.

WORTH READING.

What St. Clair and Dowd, Two of the Best, Say About Us.

The RALEIGH STATE CHRONICLE appeared Tuesday in a new dress with eight pages. It has both a modern and handsome appearance and contains a great deal of news of an excellent character. The CHRONICLE announces that it now has a special wire running into its office, and takes the complete United Press dispatches. It is both the only eight page daily in the State, and the only one having a special wire with complete telegraphic service. It is a new and bold venture in North Carolina journalism, and the result is watched with interest. Its editor, Mr. Daniels, is not an adventurer in journalism, however, his every venture having been marked with gratifying success. The RALEIGH CHRONICLE has the best wishes of the Charlotte Chronicle.

COMMENCEMENT

At Morson & Denson's School To-Day.

The closing exercises of Morson & Denson's School will take place at the academy this morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. W. S. Primrose will deliver the address; the distinctions will be read; and the prizes awarded. The public is invited.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following, Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an Incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewar, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottle free at John Y. McRae's drugstore.

IT WAS PERFECT.

And the Two Accomplished Ladies Won the Hearts of the People as Well as the Medals.

This evening, Miss Willie Brown Graves, one of the recent graduates of Peace Institute, leaves for her home in Virginia, after gaining both the admiration of the Raleigh people and gold medals as emblems of her distinction in her classes. No young lady has ever gone through the course at this noble institution who has been more universally admired than she, and the host of friends she has made will dislike to know that her voice will be no longer heard in the gay concerts of old Peace.

And just here the CHRONICLE wishes to state that it was an unintentional error that appeared in its report of the closing concert when it stated that the beautiful piano duo so well rendered by her and Miss Maude Merrimon had in it a slight mistake. These two young ladies have both won places in the musical world above that kind of procedure and it was an incorrect report that slipped into our columns inadvertently.

How True.

"The true value of Life Insurance is best appreciated when claim has been paid."

The "Connecticut Mutual" is noted for its prompt payments. The proof of Mr. E. R. Stamps' death was mailed to the Home Office by Mr. S. D. Wait, May 18th, and draft was issued to pay same ($3,015.42) May 22d, four days.

Two Things Delicious.

Mr. R. S. Uzzle, who is now keeping the very best of all kinds of vegetables, fruits, &c., and gets them early, has treated the CHRONICLE to a basket of elegant (this year's) beautiful red peaches and tomatoes, and one of the finest squashes we have ever seen. We were indeed thankful.

Dainties for the Tea-table.

Nice cakes are never out of place on any table. We offer a fresh lot of English snaps, vanilla wafers, lemon wafers, orange jelly (cakes), and dessert mixed.

NORTH CAROLINA, In the WAKE COUNTY, Superior Court.

W. C. COBB and THE RICHMOND LOCOMOTIVE and MACHINE WORKS, Plaintiffs, vs.

MICHAEL SCHALL, Defendant.

The necessary facts having been established to my satisfaction by all the evidence in this case, Vol. 1 of the Code of North Carolina, the said defendant Michael Schall, is hereby notified that he is required to appear at the next term of the Superior Court to be held at the court house in Raleigh, in the above named county and State, on the 7th day of September, 1891, at 10 o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint of the plaintiff, and to be held in the above entitled action. The plaintiff claims a right to have the defendant Michael Schall, and his heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and assigns, to have the said property sold, and the proceeds of the sale paid to the plaintiff, for general relief.

Witness, John W. Thompson, Clerk of the Superior Court of said county, at Raleigh, this 15th day of May, A. D. 1891. JOHN W. THOMPSON, Clerk Superior Court.
